GENERAL NEWS.

Gorham Catching it all Around.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Yesterday's Tribune [illegible]: "The caucus candidate for secretary of the senate is in a quandary. He is obliged to stand by Brady, who really controls the Washington Republican, while he is anxious not to offend republican senators whose votes are necessary to give him his promised place. Like other hungry expectants he wants to sit on the fence, but Brady is as peremptory as our distinguished senator and [illegible] situation, so Gorham [illegible] by changing the present star route issue to [illegible] between the present administration and Tilden, to cast reproach upon the administration of Hayes." As Gorham has done little else for two or three years but abuse the late president, it is very natural to find him thus jealous of its reputation. It would not be any more surprising to hear a liberal chorus of praise from the whole group of stalwart editors.

Sam Brannan's Fame.

A characteristic Broadway scene was afforded yesterday in front of the Astor House. Immigration lately, as is well known, has been something unprecedented. Poor creatures emerging from Castle Garden, where they are cooped up like fowls, take a stroll along Broadway and return before the gates are closed in the evening. A party of Italians dressed as at home, came sauntering up street yesterday afternoon, and when opposite the entrance of the Astor House encountered Sam Brannan, who was enjoying his afternoon cigar. Being struck with their quiet homely good nature he gave father, mother and daughters some money. Overjoyed with their unexpected good fortune, they seized poor Brannan's hands and repeatedly kissed and kissed them. A cheering crowd collected and blushing Brannan as soon as possible withdrew.

The Coming Wheat Crop.

Commercial Bulletin: The following extract from a private letter to a gentleman here is from one of the firm of McCormick & Co., the reaper manufacturers of Chicago, and is based on reports of their agents throughout the wheat region: "We sent our inquiries to several hundred agents in the winter wheat states, and thus far learn from Indiana that they have about the acreage of last year and report an average damage to the crop of 22 per cent. Illinois reports a large increase in acreage and average damage of 20 per cent. From these reports we conclude that these two states now promise about 80 per cent. of last year's crop, and will improve with the good weather now prevailing. Missouri and Kansas report a very large increase in acreage and much less damage than Illinois and Indiana. It looks as though these two states will have full crops. We have nothing from Michigan and Ohio yet, but from general information we don't think they have as much wheat as last year."

The Tehuantepec Railroad.

The World interviewed Gen. H. W. Slocum yesterday, he having just returned from Mexico. He said: I am somewhat interested financially in the Tehuantepec road, and desired to see how work was advancing. The first twelve miles from the eastern terminus are complete and forty more are graded. By July 1st fully fifty miles will have been built and will be in running order. Mr McAlpine is there and has selected the harbor for the western terminus, and will begin to build from that end immediately. A large quantity of rails and rolling stock will be shipped thither within the next fortnight. The road is built entirely by New York capitalists, except that the company has a subsidy from the Mexican government of $12,800 a mile, to be paid as the road advances, and this has been paid regularly so far and probably will continue to be. While I was in the City of Mexico the sum of $550,000 was appropriated by a bill to provide for payment of the portion that is expected to be built during this year. Grant's road begins at a point on the coast about 120 miles below Vera Cruz, the place where Gen. Scott landed his troops. There is much opposition to this selection of a terminus among the people of Vera Cruz, who don't like the idea of a rival seaport being built up so near them, and possibly some other point may be selected. The proposed course from there is directly west to the Pacific. No portion of this road has yet been built. It has no subsidy. I think Grant will succeed. He is popular and has some bright people around him among the Mexican people of great influence.

The Sonora Pacific Railroad.

BOSTON, April 29.—The directors of the Sonora Pacific Railroad Co. have unanimously voted to build the line from Hermosillo directly north through the [illegible] and through Santa Cruz valley toward [illegible] instead of northeast toward Deming or El Paso. This is the more natural route for local traffic [illegible] twenty years ago. [illegible]

Giant Locomotives.

PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—The Times says: Ten [illegible] for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will be built this summer at Altoona. They will be much larger and more powerful than the ordinary passenger engines, and are to be built for the particular purpose of making up time on portions of the road where there are long stops. The [illegible] locomotive known as No. 10 was built as an experiment and the result has been satisfactory.

Fire at Mount Morris, Michigan.

[illegible], April 29.—This morning the whole of the business portion of the village of Mount Morris, Michigan, was burned. Loss very large. The town is almost wiped out.

The house of Jas. Parsons, near Charlotte, Michigan, burned last night. The family slept till the roof fell in. Mrs. Parsons and child were probably fatally burned.

Democratic Row in Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, April 29.—The efforts to arrange the differences between the pro and anti amendment wing of the democratic party by compromise last night failed utterly, and both conferences adjourned sine die.

Hanged for Murder.

BALTIMORE, April 29.—John Gelchard alias Andy Smith, colored, convicted of the murder of Joe Woods on the 2d of December last, was hanged at Towsontown this morning.

Another, Still Another.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 29.—Marshal Baxter was hanged to-day for the murder of Bob. Hennegan last January.

The Street Car War at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 29.—Street cars are mostly running today, each company making its own terms with men. The only disturbance to-day was on the Cass avenue line, where some twenty Irish women pelted the driver with mud and threw cold water on him, and some men threw stones; nobody hurt and no arrests. Strikers who are still out are much demoralized.

Returning to Work.

ST. LOUIS, April 28.—The strikers all return to work to-night and to-morrow, some on compromised terms offered by the companies, others on old terms. Only about fifty of the men will be barred out.

More Crop Reports.

CINCINNATI, April 29.—Crop reports show a larger acreage and encouraging prospects of wheat in Ohio and Kentucky, and good wheat prospects in Indiana. Barley is a total failure. Corn planting has begun in Arkansas and Texas; season cold. Early corn is injured by rains. In West Virginia wet weather causes unfavorable reports.

A Suffering Family.

DETROIT, April 29.—A family named Weaver, eight in number, living near Crescent island, in a large marsh, all down with malignant scarlet fever, were found destitute without covering and hungry. They were drinking surface water, which is unfit for even beasts. The physician found one child dying, and the body after death turned black at once. Three children died in 24 hours. The type is the most malignant ever known.

Probably Drowned.

George H. Snook, Dr W. Decker, Morris Axtell and Chas. Wood, of Mount Clemens, went out fishing on Lake St. Clair and are missing since Wednesday. It is believed they are lost. All are prominent men.

Another Murderer Hanged.

WINDSOR, Vt., April 29.—Royal S. Carr for the murder of W. W. Murcomnock, was hanged to-day.

Killed in a Coal Mine.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 29.—Andrew Porterk, Adam Urick and John Markle were killed by a fall of rocks this afternoon in a tunnel of the Susquehanna coal company.

A Volcano.

LOUISVILLE, April 29.—A volcano has broken out on the farm of N. A. Jarnagin, in the southern portion of Ohio county. One day last week Jarnagin was attracted to the place by the escaping gas from the earth and found that the earth was seemingly on fire. He held sticks over the place and the heat caused them to ignite.

More Threats from the Utes.

CHEYENNE, April 29.—Colorow, the Ute chief and 75 lodges of Utes are camped within 5 miles of the post on White river. Colorow told Col. Moore, commanding troops of sixth infantry, to leave with all troops within 5 days. The action of the Indians indicates trouble. Colorow is next in authority to Jack among the White river Utes.

Dividends.

LEADVILLE, April 29.—Dividends are to be paid next month by the following mines: Chrysolite, $100,000; Iron Silver, $100,000; Matchless, $75,000; Robinson, $50,000; Evening Star, $25,000; Hibernia, $20,000; Lapstan and Dunkirk, $15,000 each.

Mining Stock Transferred.

All interest in the Comstock and Black Tail lodes was yesterday transferred to the Comstock Mining Co. for $250,000.

A Mother Murders her Children and Commits Suicide.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., April 29.—Christian Koch, engine wiper for engine No. 26, which runs between Grand Island and St. Paul, upon returning to St. Paul from this place this morning where he has been at work for a couple of days, went direct to his house and found the door locked. He looked in and saw one of his children in bed and his wife lying with blood around her upon the floor near the bed. He got the sheriff and together they went in and found his three children in bed and his wife on the floor, all with their throats cut with a razor, which lay on the table near by. The children were aged [illegible] years, and six months respectively. It is thought that the mother first murdered her children and then committed suicide. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts. No reason is given for the deed and there is no evidence of insanity. She left only the two words "Goodbye" to explain.

An Embezzler.

OMAHA, April 29.—Quite a sensation was created here to-day by the arrest of R. H. N. Kelley, cashier of B. and M. railroad headquarters in this city, for [illegible] his accounts and found [illegible]. To-day Kelley attempted to leave town with about $150 in money and also checks, drafts, money orders, &c., in all amounting to over $[illegible], which he had taken from the money drawer [illegible] the night. He was caught and detained [illegible] turned him over to a policeman. [illegible] waived examination and has been committed to jail in default of [illegible] bail. [illegible] with bad women, which explains his defalcations. He has been in several scrapes before.

Failures for the Week.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Failures reported to Bradstreet's for the week throughout the United States and Canada show an increase of seventeen over the record of the preceding week, but the number is below the average for the past ten weeks. A number of other firms have been compelled to ask extensions, their temporary embarrassment being attributed to various causes. In the middle states the number of failures reported was 26, increase 7; New England states 22, increase 4; southern states 22, increase 2; western states 25, same as before; Canada provinces 6 increase.

Opera Company Collapsed.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The [illegible] French opera company, one of the best of its kind ever organized, collapsed to-night because of insufficient patronage, and the management being unable to persuade the performers to go on without the payment of back salaries.

Seriously Ill.

CHICAGO, April 29.—Rev. Dr. H. W. Thomas, the celebrated divine, is dangerously sick to-night.

A False Report.

KANSAS CITY, April 29.—The dispatch from Cheyenne on the 23d instant, reporting Col. G. Adams defaulter for a large amount while U. S. marshal at Wyoming, was false. The claim against him was for disallowed accounts, amounting to $575, and he holds receipts in full from the government. He now lives here, a respected citizen, and just returned from a trip to New Mexico and Arizona and will investigate these stories.

Dissatisfied with Directors.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, April 29.—The board of trade has adopted resolutions that the appointment of Kountze and Frost of Omaha, as government directors of the Union Pacific is inimical to the interests of the government. It is claimed that Frost's character is besmirched and that Kountze has been a banker for the Union Pacific and that both reside at Omaha, while Iowa has no representation in the board. Omaha people resent these assertions and defend Frost as a pure, honest man, and assert that Kountze has not lived in Omaha for 10 years and seldom visited there.

At a Stand.

ST. PAUL, April 29.—The river is stationary here and falling above. No additional damage from above.

The Flood near Lexington, Mo.

LEXINGTON, April 29.—The Missouri has risen 22 feet 8 inches at this point, higher than it has been since 1844. The Ray and Lafayette county bottoms are submerged and are being rapidly depopulated. No lives have yet been lost, but thousands of horses, cattle and hogs must inevitably perish. The ferry boat Undine, with a gallant volunteer crew, has been at work two days rescuing endangered people. To-day she brought off the bottoms 209 persons, 360 animals, 25 loaded wagons and 50 wagon loads of household goods. She goes out again to-morrow. Water in many houses from which people were taken was several feet in depth. There is fearful loss of property and much suffering and distress.

Bodies Identified.

NEW YORK, April 29.—A charred body supposed to be that of Patrick McLaughlin, was found in the ruins of Smith's ink factory. Several other bodies have been identified, including Clarence Reed. The latter was supposed to be that of Geo. Bloomfield.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Opposed to a Monument.

LONDON, April 29.—The movement [illegible] in opposition to a monument for Beaconsfield, is assuming the form of an amendment likely to be submitted in the house. The opposition is based on the unusual character of the monument. Some counter scheme will probably be put forward.

Land League Matters.

DUBLIN, April 29.—The manifesto of the Catholic clergy is substantially an endorsement of the report adopted by the recent land league convention. It is warmly approved by the advocates of the [illegible], although it is thought hardly probable that the proposed [illegible] land league assessors [illegible]

LONDON, April 29.—[illegible] large portion of that property without giving any compensation.

An Opinion.

At a meeting of the Irish church synod to-day, the lord primate said the land league was nothing more nor less than a gigantic combination for the destruction of the act of union.

Failed to Evict.

LONDON, April 29.—The attempt to evict tenants at New Pallas to-day failed. There were 100 military and police present, but the mob of 3000, many with revolvers, hooted and groaned and stoned the sheriff and assistants. The police charged the mob several times, but the bailiff's life being threatened he refused to point out the houses and defaulting tenants. Another attempt to evict will be made shortly.

Arrested.

DUBLIN, April 29.—A man named Joyce was arrested today on board a steamer leaving Galway for America on a charge of complicity in the murder of Leyden.

Another Fast Horse.

LONDON, April 29.—The Daily Telegraph says of Foxhall that he has beaten everything except the Derby winner and no better 4 year old has been seen this year in public, although his compatriot, Parole, despite his steep and upright shoulders, carried the largest weight of American money. Our enterprising kinsmen may be congratulated upon having sent us in Foxhall such a colt as must gladden the hearts of all good judges of horseflesh. The colt, too, if he remains sound, will make his mark upon English sward.

Dead.

LONDON, April 29.—Rev. Charles Girdlestone, author of many religious works, is dead.

The Monetary Conference.

PARIS, April 29.—The English delegates to the monetary conference are daily expected. The Italian delegates have conferred together on suggestions they should make to Cernuschi and Horton in framing a programme for the conference.

Settled with the French.

PARIS, April 29.—The French garrison at Kief has received submission of adjacent tribes, and dismissed them to their homes.

Franco-Turkish Diplomatics.

St. Hilaire has received a second note from the porte raising the question of the integrity of the Ottoman empire in regard to Tunis, and stating that the sultan being the bey's suzerain, he has influence over him which France does not possess and consequently at a simple order of the porte the bey might be made to make all amends to France, thus saving the latter the necessity of coercive measures and risking diplomatic complications. The note hints at deposing the bey in favor of his brother. France has, however, declined the proffered intervention, as she does not desire to acknowledge the porte's superiority.

Against the Albanian Insurgents.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 29.—Dervish Pasha, governor of Albania, is organizing an expedition against Ousnjo, where the Albanian insurgents are concentrated. Pacification of Albania is regarded as assured.

Leave of Absence.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 29.—Gen. Longstreet, the American minister, left the city on a leave of absence for Vienna and western Europe. He has obtained permission in favor of the American Archæological Society, for excavations at Assos island, Cephalonia.

A Coronation Ceremony.

BUCHAREST, April 29.—A dispatch says King Charles has declined the jeweled crown which it was proposed to order for the coming coronation and which was to cost half a million francs. His majesty expressed the wish that a crown of steel made from Turkish guns captured by the Roumanians at Plevna be used instead. The sceptre will be made of some material after a model belonging to a Wallachian hero of the 16th century. The ceremony will be confined to presentation of the crown. The king will not be anointed, he considers that being a constitutional monarch there should be no outward emblem of divine right in the coronation.

Maltreating the Jews.

BERLIN, April 29.—A popular movement against the Jews has broken out at Argenau, West Prussia. A mob led by a school teacher attacked the houses of some Jews and maltreated the inmates.

An Attack on Jews.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 29.—Serious disturbances originating in a superstition of the peasantry regarding Jewish passover rites have occurred at Elizabethgrad. A mob destroyed a synagogue. Many rioters were killed by troops summoned to repress the riot.

Want a Treaty.

MADRID, April 29.—It is said that the free traders urge the cabinet to negotiate a treaty of commerce with the United States in order to obtain special concessions for exports from Cuba.

Blaine's Ailment.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—A well known physician here declares that Blaine is suffering from Bright's disease of the kidneys, and will never be a well man. The worst symptom is the fact that his ears have bleached out as white as his face. This only happens when the disease is so far advanced as to render recovery almost hopeless. Blaine had the same [illegible] and disinclination to be regarded sick that marked the manner of Carpenter when the same dread disease was driving him rapidly to his grave.

Boston Transcript (Rep.): Mrs. Garfield has hired a new cook for the white house without consulting a single congressman. This high handed [illegible] is sure to make trouble.

Where there is a weakness of the throat or lungs, a cold neglected may be all that is required to establish a lingering and generally fatal disease. Even where there is no special tendency to Bronchial or Pulmonary trouble, a severe cold, left to take care of itself, often plants the seeds of such a complaint, sure to be developed by subsequent indiscretions. Take especial care of your health, therefore, from the very earliest symptoms of a Cough or Cold, by prudently resorting to Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, which will soothe and strengthen the bronchial tubes, allay inflammation, and cleanse them and the lungs of all irritating substances. An ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Conkling Promised Aid from the Democrats in his Fight.

AN EXECUTIVE SESSION PROMISED VERY SOON.

Ex-Senator Dorsey Clearing Himself from the Star Mail Route Charges—Blaine will Receive Support of Some Democratic Senators, etc., etc.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.

The republican caucus committee [illegible] a conference with the president [illegible] executive session, according to be held next week. In the executive session the nomination of Robertson, along with others, will be referred to the committee. This cannot be prevented. A majority of that committee agree with Conkling in opposing Robertson, and there it will be in Conkling's power to report it or not. Evidence all goes to show that he will report it this session. He wants to get an opportunity to put on record his position in the Robertson case. He has remained silent as long as he cares to. He regards present circumstances and conditions as favorable [illegible].

A senator in talking over the case with a Southern Associated Press reporter to-night said that Conkling could get some help by not antagonizing Stanley Matthews' confirmation, that is, his friends, if Matthews in the senate had expressed a willingness to vote against Robertson if that would help Matthews. Again some democrats, on account of disliking Chandler, and who care but little either way about Robertson's case, are willing to vote against Robertson to secure Chandler's rejection. Combinations can now be made that might be impossible next winter, and as the case now stands, the chances are in favor of Robertson's case being brought up at this session.

Immediately after Frye's speech 31 democratic senators entered into an agreement to take Conkling's side against the administration.

There are four or five democratic senators working industriously among their colleagues against Robertson, on the ground that his rejection will split the republican party in New York, and this has had and is still having its effect. The near approach of an executive session brings the Robertson case to the front again as the most important question. A republican senator friendly to Conkling but opposed to him on Robertson, said to-night that Conkling now contemplates making his fight at an early day. This same senator had seen the president, and he was firm as ever in the determination not to withdraw Robertson. While Conkling is active and employing all his great ability to prepare for the contest, the administration is not idle. Senator Blaine has some personal friends on the democratic side, and he has appealed to them to stand by him. The administration is reported as feeling confident and Conkling's friends declare he is also confident.

The President urges an Executive Session.

Senator Dawes, chairman of the republican caucus committee had a conference with the president today. The president is emphatic in urging consideration of executive business, and especially rapid confirmation of nominations. A number of the pending nominations are to fill vacancies, the existence of which somewhat embarrasses the work of the departments. As soon as the senate resumes executive session the president has a number of nominations to make, some of which he has been requested by parties selected for offices to hold back while the deadlock continues, as gentlemen do not like to [illegible] their names lying upon the table. [illegible] the committee will arrange for an executive session next Tuesday to consider the Chinese treaties. This will take two or three days, and meantime the committee will arrange for action upon nominations. [illegible] republicans seems to be in favor of laying Robertson's nomination over until next winter, but the caucus committee [illegible] single out that one as [illegible] demands that it be left entirely to the New York senators.

The Republican Caucus Committee.

The World's Washington special says: It is said on apparently good authority that the committee appointed by yesterday's republican caucus will consist of Davis, Ingalls, Jones of Nevada, Cameron of Wisconsin, Hill of Colorado, Sewell and Rollins. The committee will have their [illegible] session of the senate [illegible] that an executive session will be allowed [illegible] consideration of the Chinese treaties [illegible]

Dorsey and the Star Routes.

[illegible] It was stated [illegible] authority direct from Dorsey that the latter had requested the postmaster-general to investigate immediately Dorsey's alleged complicity, and that the postmaster-general admitted he could not find any evidence to connect Dorsey with the ring, and [illegible] Dorsey will make his statement to the public, showing that he never had any connection with the star service ring.

Dorsey had a long talk with the postmaster-general, and it is said he insisted on having an immediate statement. If there was anything against him, let it be given out, and if nothing, so stated. There is bad blood between Dorsey and Brady personally, and those who make the charges against the star route ring, say it will result in aiding impending investigation to unearth and expose all the ring's doings. President Garfield is firm in the determination to expose the wrong regardless of whom it might involve.

The Postoffice Department.

NEW YORK, April 29.—A Times Washington special says: No fresh disclosures have been made in regard to the star route scandal during the last twenty-four hours. It may be as well, however, to state that Postmaster-General James is heartily sustained by the president in the course he is pursuing in reference to this subject, and he also enjoys the active coöperation of Attorney-General MacVeagh. It is understood that the president, within the last two days, has directed Postmaster-General James to continue the investigation until the bottom facts of the swindle are unearthed, without regard to who may be injured by the disclosure. It will thus be seen that the president, postmaster and attorney-general are in entire accord on this subject. The investigations now in progress will necessarily occupy several weeks, and it may be the first of July before the inspectors who are engaged under the postmaster-general in making searches in the second assistant's department have completed their labors and are ready to report to the postmaster-general. The public, however, may rest assured that the inquiry will be a most thorough and fearless one, and that the report which will finally be presented to the president will be one in which no favor will be shown to the guilty. Mr. James has been somewhat hampered thus far by the immediate surroundings among the employes left in Gen. Brady's department. He has not felt certain in whom to trust. The case of chief clerk French, who was dismissed from the service on Tuesday, is a marked illustration of the demoralization which prevails in the department. How many more employes of the same kind still remain it is impossible to tell. What is needed in the postmaster-general's department just at this time is a new broom, and a very vigorous arm to wield it—a sweeping out of old material and the putting in of employes who will be in thorough and hearty sympathy with the purposes of a reform administration.

A Contradiction.

The Times' Washington correspondent contradicts a story current there that Dorsey has attempted to procure the removal of Chief Justice Prince of New Mexico, the original story having stated that Prince had threatened to expose Dorsey, who is alleged to have secured possession of 12,000 acres of land in that territory.

Press Comments on Brady.

Nearly all journals this morning again devote much space to Brady and his alleged defense. Opinion seems to be that his disgrace will be followed by that of others great and small.

Garfield Declined the Offer.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Garfield said to a republican member of congress that he had decided before leaving Mentor to remove Gen. Brady, who wrote him during the campaign offering to raise $75,000 from the star route contractors. Garfield declined the offer and set inquiries on foot.

Congressman to be Elected in South Carolina.

A special election will be ordered in South Carolina to elect a member of congress in place of O'Connor, deceased. As the governor of that state holds that O'Connor was legally elected last fall, Mackey, republican, who ran against O'Connor, contested the seat, claiming that he was elected. As the district is republican, Mackey's friends advised him to make the race, believing he could be so plainly elected as to avoid a contest and that this plan would be easier and cheaper than to make a contest.

The democrats hold that O'Connor's popularity with colored voters elected him, and they have expressed doubts of finding another man who could carry the district. It is announced now the democrats intend to run Campbell, a lawyer and a democrat, who supported Garfield's administration, and will make his race on a pledge to support him in congress. Owing to the nearly equal division of the two parties in the next house one seat is valuable, and the indications are that both parties will strain every nerve to get this seat.

Military Matters.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The Herald's Washington special says: Dissatisfaction is caused among certain army officers by information that the division of the gulf to which Schofield has been assigned will probably become extinct by change in boundaries for the purpose of better [illegible] military discipline in the territory, and [illegible] understanding in regard to division of military authority between Sherman's and Schofield's commands. Sheridan was to-day ordered to Washington by telegraph to report to the secretary of war. Upon his arrival there will be a conference between the secretary, General Sherman, Sheridan and Adjutant General Drum.

The Senate and the Chinese Treaties.

An administration senator said to-day that at least the Chinese treaties would be ratified, in which the death [illegible] is raised. Californians were indifferent about it. The democrats did not want the treaties confirmed, for if they [illegible] the republican party for it, and the state would go solidly democratic. As far people were united upon the [illegible] that Chinese immigration must be limited. It is believed that the democrats have in mind a scheme to offer amendments to treaties that will provoke discussion and result in delay of action or non-confirmation.

A Democratic ex-Senator's Advice.

Ex-Senator Eaton of Connecticut, who is now in Washington, advises democratic senators to stick to their present position [illegible] until 1883. [illegible] arguing that if they [illegible] party of New York which will give the state to the democrats.

REVOLUTIONARY RUSSIA.

A Good Deal of Gush and Sentimental Gloss Work.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 29.—It would be difficult to exaggerate the gravity of the situation in Russia. Never before was the need of a steady hand at the helm so deeply and universally felt. It required nothing less than the tragedy of the 13th March to open men's eyes to the fact that the reform which the revolutionists endeavor to wring from the government by deeds of bloodshed, can not and must not be long delayed. In the matter of intelligence the women of Russia are much superior to the men. If they ventured to formulate their desires they could repeat demands contained in the last proclamation of the famous executive committee. It is surprising to see how much there is in common between Russian intelligence and the revolutionary party. The distinction between them lies not in the end but in the means. The very absence of freedom which some demand and all desire leaves to Russian reformers no choice but silence or sedition. No one who has traveled through Russia lately can have failed to note the difference between the past and present. Servile politeness has given place to independence, rude and sometimes brutal. Where an old muzhik would bow to a passenger stranger, the youth [illegible] with a sullen stare. The latter has some knowledge of his rights and wrongs, which makes him in many instances a willing listener to insidious counsels of revolutionary propagandists. Go where you will, from the White to the Black sea, from the Danube to the Amoor, the peasants are awaking from the deathlike slumber of centuries. The spring tide of national life is dawning though the trees still look withered and dead and winter snow still whitens the ground. The chilly sleet rustles through the branches, but the sap is rising, and leaves, blossoms and fruit will soon spring forth. What sort of a crop it will be depends mainly on the decisions that must shortly be taken. Meantime the emperor lives in retirement at Gatschina and sees no one but Prince Waradkoff. People speak in official circles of moral abdication and shake their heads when they speak of the future. It may be, however, that ere long we shall have a manifesto of some sort and an indication of policy to be pursued. At present there is none and Russia is without a government.

MRS. LUCY L. GRUBBS.

Death of a Daughter of Rev. Jason Lee.

Mrs Lucy Lee Grubbs, wife of Prof. F. H. Grubbs, and the daughter of Rev Jason Lee, the first missionary to Oregon, died at the Dalles at 10 P. M. Tuesday.

She was born at Salem in 1842, her mother dying when she was only two or three weeks old, which led to placing her at once in the care of the wife of Rev. G. Hines, in whose family, loved and trained as a daughter, she resided until her marriage. She graduated at the Willamette University and was for several years first a teacher and afterwards preceptress of the institution. Hers was a noble womanhood. With an intellect as profound and capable as any we have known in Oregon, a tender and delicate conscience, a generosity and sympathy that knew no bounds but ability, she impressed herself on the thousands who had the favor of her friendship as a model of excellence in all that makes life truly great. She leaves a devoted husband and daughter. H. K. H.

The late S. N. Stockwell, of the Boston Journal, used to tell a good story of old time journalism. A meeting was to be held in Brighton or that vicinity, and he suggested to Hewitt that somebody ought to go out and report it for the Journal. "Never mind," said Hewitt, "somebody will send it in, in a few days." And so they waited.

A WISE DEACON.

"Deacon Wilder, I want you to tell me how you kept yourself and family so well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors running to us so often."

"Bro. Taylor, the answer is very easy. I used Hop Bitters in time; kept my family well and saved large doctor's bills. Three dollars' worth of it kept us well and able to work all the time, and I will warrant it has cost you and most of the neighbors one to two hundred dollars apiece to keep sick the same time. I guess you'll take my medicine hereafter." See other column.

"THE BURRIAN CODE."

A historical writer tells us that Aaron Burr was our first partisan despot, as certainly he was the original, the unrivalled, the arch-intriguer of his day. Under his advice, and in the state of New York, the first steps were taken for the degradation of federal patronage and authority for personal, partisan and local purposes. Burr devised and made "the machine," and laid deep the foundations of "the spoils system." Here is an extract from history, which has not ceased to be applicable to Burr's successors and Burr's system, as they survive to this day:

> Among the maxims of Colonel Burr for the guidance of politicians, one of the most prominent was that the people at elections were to be managed by the same rules of discipline as the soldiers of an army; that a few leaders were to think for the masses, and that the latter were to obey implicitly their leaders, and to move only at the word of command. He had, therefore, great confidence in the machinery of party, and that system of regular nominations in American politics of which he may, perhaps, be considered one of the founders. In no part of the United States have party rules been more constantly and rigidly enforced than among the democrats of the state of New York.

In Parton's Life of Jackson the "Burrian Code," as the author calls it, thus early introduced into New York politics, is declared to contain the following maxims, viz:

> 1. Politics is a game, the prizes of which are offices and contracts.
>
> 5. Fidelity to party is the sole virtue of the politician. He only is a politician who would vote [illegible] for the devil, if the devil were regularly nominated. One sin only is unpardonable—bolting.
>
> 6. No man must be allowed to suffer on account of his fidelity to his party, no matter how callous the people he may make him.
>
> 13. When there is a conflict between the party in the whole union and the party in the state, or between the party in the state and the party in the county, a man must adhere to the behests of the majority of his own local organization. That is to say, a private must obey the orders of his own immediate captain, though that captain may be in mutiny against his colonel.
>
> 14. Editors are to be unscrupulously used, but never implicitly trusted.
> 15. The end and aim of the professional politician is to keep great men down and put little men up. Little men, owing all to the wire-puller, will be governed by him. Great men, having ideas and convictions, are perilous, even as tools.

Parton is endeavoring to find excuses for Jackson, who introduced this system at large into the national government. He goes on to explain how Jackson was brought into it. "Thus early," he says, "was the execrable system in vogue in New York of distributing offices among victorious partisans, as soldiers divide the spoils of conquest." The system has survived to this day; and curiously enough, it still has its chief stronghold in New York. It is a New York senator who now is its most powerful champion. The strife of New York politics developed the system, in hands of partisan despots, to the highest possible perfection. To illustrate: "Every man holding office was forced to take part in the strife during the struggle between Van Buren and Clinton. The bench was dragged into the defiling pool of politics. Judges became as reckless politicians as most active machine men." Of course the "Burrian Code" was speedily extended to municipal offices in the city of New York and it hardly need be said that it has never lost its supremacy in the metropolis. Barnard, Cardozo, Tweed, McCunn, Kelly and custom house politics are the political offspring of Burr and his system. Conkling is trying to maintain the "respectable" side of it, as Van Buren did, but the system is corrupt and corrupting in all its parts from the very necessity of its existence and never can be anything else.

We read also that the intrigues and vindictiveness of partisan politics in New York had thus early become notorious. "And in the county of Mr. Van Buren's residence were carried to the greatest extremities." The political system of the state had nourished faction and frequently produced a state of feeling in the public mind which threatened the dissolution of the bands which unite together a civilized and Christian community. Party spirit raged in this more than in any other state of the union." It required more than a human Crone to confine such a system to the politics of a state. General Jackson became a politician, a New York politician under the tutelage of Mr. Van Buren, who was Burr's successor as the head of the New York spoils system. Van Buren had, when senator in 1827, put Burr's system into practice at Washington as far as he was able, but it was not made supreme in national affairs until he became Jackson's secretary of state in 1829. It was perfected in its methods under him as vice president and president from 1832 to 1840.

What is the real meaning of the prolonged contest now witnessed at Washington? A senator from New York is fighting to reinstate the "Burrian Code," and to enforce its tyrannical methods in national politics. This expresses it all.

Old Robert Toombs, says a Georgia letter, still lives at a town north of Atlanta, and is a considerable proprietor of Atlanta real estate. His private example and frothy teachings have an evil influence on the young men, the more so that he has a certain fantastic brilliancy of expression which encourages the growth of rowdies. When he is drunk—a common matter—he will stand and talk to kids, swearing the while, telling them to rejoice in being rebels, and saying that he will never take an oath of allegiance to the American government, etc. As he is rich, the young fellows get the idea that all this coarseness and these sentiments are portions of the general genius of the man, and have assisted to make his money. There is no funeral more ardently to be desired by the respectable people of Atlanta than that of Bob Toombs.

Ex-Secretary Schurz has returned to St. Louis and resumed his labors as a journalist. In his paper, the Westliche Post, of April 17, he prints an interesting article on the situation in the United States senate. In his opinion the political situation in Washington is a very peculiar one indeed. The extra session of the senate was called for the purpose of disposing of executive business. The republicans are the party of the administration, and the democrats form the opposition. And now the country beholds a singular spectacle. The democrats are in favor of transacting the business for which the extra session was convened by the president, while the republicans, the party of the administration, refuse to comply.

---

The statement is made that Captain Eads threatens, in the event that congress shall refuse him aid in carrying through his ship railroad project across the American isthmus, to go to England for assistance, where he is sure, he says, to find money enough to put the enterprise through as a private affair. That "threat" is not very alarming. If he gets the money in Europe then the ship road will be built without any contribution of American taxes to it; and the road can be used for American vessels all the same.

---

A letter has been received at the treasury department from an enterprising German citizen of New York city offering the government $10,000 for the privilege of running a small lunch counter and a beer saloon in the lobby of the postoffice of that city. In a postscript he added that if his proposition was entertained he would make it "all right with the proper parties."

---

A reporter of a western journal was sent to Washington to look up certain senators. He arrived on Sunday, and went around among the churches to find the statesmen. Not finding them he telegraphed the fact to the managing editor, who replied: "Look for them in some place where the sign says, 'No drinks sold on Sundays.'"

---

The New York Herald of Sunday, April 17, was the largest newspaper ever issued in the world. It consisted of twenty-eight pages, of all six columns. Nearly 100 columns were devoted to advertisements. This is an advertising business without a parallel in the whole history of journalism.

---

"Portland," we are informed by a western newspaper of a city that is trying to be, "Portland will never be a shipping point." The editor has doubtless yet to learn that Portland has been both a shipping point and a point for shipping these thirty years.

---

The balance of trade in favor of the United States from August 21 to April 8th, was $82,000,000, or $10,000,000 more than during the previous year. The probabilities are that the total amount will reach $100,000,000 during the current fiscal year.

---

Since January, 1878, assessments paid on the Sierra Nevada mine have footed up $2,630,000, with no prospect yet of a "strike." Some ore has been taken out, but not enough to pay expenses. Is such a mine really worth anything?

The Daily Oregonian.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 30, 1881.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Indications for northern Pacific coast region fair weather.

CITY.

DEATH OF MRS. PADDOCK.—After a brief illness, the beloved wife of Bishop Paddock, the newly appointed bishop of the diocese of Washington territory, died at St. Helen's Hall, in this city, yesterday morning, of typho-pneumonia. Bishop and Mrs. Paddock arrived in this city from the east over a week ago. The fatigue, excitement and labors incident to the trip across the continent, proved too much for the lady. On arriving in San Francisco, she became too ill to leave her room. When the steamer sailed for Portland Mrs. Paddock was taken from a sick bed and conveyed on board and arrived here in a very precarious state of health. This condition, notwithstanding the most tender care and the best medical attendance, has continued to grow worse until death supervened. The affliction is a peculiarly sad one, coming as it does upon the very threshold of her entrance with her husband upon a new field, and one widely remote from all the associations that have gathered around her life.

TO LOCATE THE LINE.—An engineering party of about fourteen men left Tacoma yesterday for Kalama, to begin an instrumental survey for extension of the Northern Pacific railroad along the north bank of Columbia river, to connect with the Oregon roads at Portland. An instrumental survey and location of this line was made several years ago, but it is thought that the same may be much improved in some respects, particularly in avoiding the necessity for a considerable amount of trestling by keeping on higher ground. Another further important object is now to be served, that of fixing upon the best location for a bridge across the Columbia river. We are glad to see Tacoma looking to Portland for an outlet. When the Northern Pacific road shall have been extended to this city, then the offices and headquarters of the company on this side of the continent will doubtless be moved from Tacoma to Portland as a measure of convenience, if not of necessity.

GONE EAST.—Mayor Crawford of Salem left on the outgoing steamer for the eastern states. He will first go to Buffalo, N. Y., where he will attend the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, which meets there on the 19th of next month. After the meeting he will visit "the old folks at home" in Ohio, his native state. He will be absent from the state about two months. Mayor Crawford took with him the following samples of Oregon raised grain for exhibition. The grain was all raised by Mr. D. D. Prettyman of Salem: Wheat, Palestine, Odessa, Centennial, Silver Velvet and White Australian; Swedish oats white Russian rye and ball barley. Last year Mr. Prettyman sent a firm in Philadelphia a sample of his Palestine wheat, and we have seen, by a circular published by them, an offer of a reward of $50 per bushel for any wheat that will beat it for size and quality.

RECEIVED INTO THE CHURCH.—The Catholic Sentinel says: On Easter Sunday, in the afternoon, St. Mary's academy of this city witnessed a feast of true joy. Three young ladies, Miss M. A. Entzenchan, Miss A. Walker and Miss L. Brown, pupils of the institution, were solemnly received into the true church of God, after they had been thoroughly instructed in the Christian doctrine by the sisters. The solemn administration of baptism was performed by Rev. Father Metayer, the chaplain, in the presence of a large number of the young ladies' relatives and friends. After this sacred ceremony, which was truly impressive and highly edifying, solemn benediction of the blessed sacrament took place. The beautiful chapel was tastefully decorated for the occasion.

THE ENTERTAINMENT.—This evening the Young Men's Dramatic and Musical Society will give a musical and literary entertainment at New Market theater. The proceeds of the entertainment will be donated to the cathedral building fund. A very entertaining programme will be presented. The laughable farce, "Brown's Barber Shop," the burlesque, "Our Boarding House," and the funny farce "New Broom Sweep Clean," will be produced during the evening, between which will be vocal and instrumental selections. Among those participating may be mentioned: W. H. Kinross, Miss Nellie Kneal[illegible], Miss C. Pendergast, Miss Fanny Young, M. J. Hegtian, C. A. Lombard, E. J. [illegible], D. M. [illegible], W. P. [illegible], D. S. Fulton, M. Murphy, C. F. [illegible] and others.

[illegible]—A great many old Portlanders will remember Mr. [illegible] Waterman, the pioneer journalist, printer and press[illegible] of Oregon. [illegible] The Western Star early in the '50s [illegible] Mr. Waterman still [illegible] and is at present [illegible] [illegible] tract school [illegible] month.

[illegible] WELL REC[illegible]—In speaking of the appointment of Miss Hattie L. [illegible] of Syracuse, New York, as art teacher in the [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] SICK.—The Astorian of the 29th says: "Private dispatches yesterday morning stated that Mr. [illegible] W. Hume was very much worse at his Oakland home. His brothers, William and Joseph, will go by the State of California today to be with him. We sincerely hope for the recovery of Mr. Hume. His death would be universally regretted—and Astoria would lose one of its best and foremost; a man indeed who cannot be spared from our business circles without profound regrets."

PAID THEIR MEN.—Some time since the common council passed an ordinance prohibiting any one from driving with a vehicle over hose during a fire. At the time of the fire on Thursday morning two individuals had the pleasure of paying into the city treasury the sum of $5 for running over the hose. Chief Jaruan says he is determined to strictly enforce the provisions of this very excellent ordinance regardless of consequences.

O. S. H. M. S.—The annual meeting of the Oregon State Homeopathic Medical Society will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 3d and 4th, at the Y. M. C. A. committee room. On Tuesday evening there will be a popular meeting in the hall, to which the public is invited. Among the exercises will be the personal reminiscences by Dr. McKinnell, the pioneer of homœopathy in Oregon. Programme on Tuesday.

UP THE VALLEY.—Yesterday afternoon William Reid, accompanied by Maj. Sears, started up the valley to look after the interests of the Oregonian Railway Company. They will proceed as far as Dundee station on the west side and returning to Ray's landing, will cross to the east side and go to Brownsville. They will be absent about four days.

SERVICES SECURED.—The society of the First Congregational church of East Portland are happy to announce to the public that they have secured the services of the Rev. Amos W. Bower, late of Oregon City, to become their pastor. Regular services will be held every Sabbath morning and evening in their pleasant house of worship in Holladay's addition.

The Boss coffee and tea pots and urns are deservedly gaining great popularity in this state and Washington territory, and there can be no doubt of their highest endorsement wherever introduced and used. After a practical test in our family we cheerfully add our indorsement to those of many others using the "Boss" in Portland. Messrs. Ruckel & Russell, proprietors of the "Boss," have perfected arrangements with the well known house of Messrs. Goldsmith & Loewenberg, for manufacturing the same on a large scale, which fact alone is a guarantee of their superiority over any other style of coffee and tea pots or urns in the market. Their advertisement in another column fully explains itself.

NO SMALLPOX.

Foundationless Rumor Concerning the Existence of this Loathsome Disease in Portland.

Mayor D. P. Thompson received yesterday the following letter:

FORT CANBY, W. T., April 21, 1881.

MAYOR D. P. THOMPSON: DEAR SIR: I have just heard through some Chinamen employed near here that there are at present some twenty cases of smallpox among the Chinese of Portland, and that the fact has been concealed from the authorities of that city. It is said as soon as a case shows itself the patient is conveyed to one of the Chinese market gardens near the city, and in this manner kept from the knowledge of the proper authorities. I give you these facts as I received them. You may already know them, but if you do not, they may be useful.

Very respectfully yours,

C. B. THROCKMORTON,
Capt. 2d Art. U. S. Artillery.

Immediately on the receipt of this letter Mayor Thompson called on Chief Luppens, and after showing that officer the communication, requested him to make a thorough investigation. This was done by the chief yesterday. He went through every nook and corner of every building occupied by Chinese and especially and thoroughly inspected the premises. Chief Luppens also visited the [illegible] various Chinese gardens about the city. He reports that not a single case of smallpox [illegible] Mayor Thompson has written a letter to Major Throckmorton [illegible] chief's investigation.

LENNINGER'S PATENT ELECTRIC DRAUGHT WHIFFLE-TREE.

The spirit of invention is one that pervades very generally among American citizens, it being an acknowledged fact that to the new world civilization is indebted for many if not the majority of the most useful, practical and important inventions of the present day. American genius predominates everywhere and a visit to the patent office in Washington city, where models of all American inventions are filed, would greatly surprise one not partially conversant at least with the inventive genius of Americans. An invention sometimes of the most ordinary character will bring fame and fortune to some modest and retiring individual simply because it is of practical benefit and at once strikes the fancy of all classes, while others, over which patient inventors have studied for a life time and which may involve the most important scientific principles, may be much more difficult to introduce and possibly be the means of expending fortunes, while future generations perhaps reap the reward. Inventive genius as a means of bringing to the front hitherto unknown individuals is fully exemplified in our own state, in the almost worldwide reputation gained by W. H. Lenninger, Esq., of Salem, who in as many years has secured letters patent on no less than eight important inventions and to-day stands among those in the foremost ranks of American inventors. His patent spring mattress created an impetus [illegible] [illegible] W. H. Lenninger, Esq., Chemeketa Hotel, Salem, Oregon.

MAIL ORDER DEPARTMENT.

The growth of the Ladies' Ready-Made Suit Department for the past two years has been remarkable, and may justly be attributed to the most efficient and thorough manner in which I have executed all orders entrusted to me. An All-Wool Black or Colored Dress for from $15 to $50.

And when not acquainted with me, has the privilege of examining the Dress ordered. No advance of money is required, as is the custom with New York houses, which is such a great risk, as many advances have been regretted by Ladies, who waited for two months for a Dress and then were displeased. ## COMMON SCHOOL TEXT-BOOKS.

OFFICE OF SUP'T OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
Salem, Or., April 23, 1881.

To the People of Oregon: The Oregon school law provides in Section 10, that "the superintendent of public instruction shall, under the direction of the state board of education, issue a circular to each county superintendent, containing a list of studies required to be taught in the public schools, together with the wholesale price of all books in said list. Each county superintendent shall, after due consideration, write opposite each study the text-book or series of text-books preferred. The county superintendent shall transmit such circulars, fully answered, to the superintendent of public instruction, who shall cause the same to be laid before the state board of education, and the text-book or series of text-books in any one branch receiving the majority of all the votes of the county superintendents, shall be the authorized text-book or series of text-books in that branch in the public schools of this state for four years next succeeding the official announcement of the superintendent of public instruction. Provided, That if any two or more text-books or series of text-books shall, in the first selection, receive the same and highest number, the superintendent shall decide which of them shall be used."

Sec. 11. That the superintendent of public instruction shall every four years after the first selection of text books, issue a similar circular, to be called regular circulars, and the county superintendents shall make a selection in the same manner as in Sec. 10; and if any text book or series of text books of any one branch, shall receive an actual majority of the votes of the county superintendents, that shall be the authorized text book in that branch in the common schools of this state for the four years next succeeding the official announcement of the superintendent of public instruction. If no text book or series of text books in any one branch shall receive a majority of the votes of the county superintendents, then the superintendent of public instruction shall immediately report to the county superintendents the two text books receiving the highest number of votes, and from them the superintendents shall forthwith make a selection and transmit their votes to the superintendent of public instruction, which votes shall be canvassed and the result announced as in Sec. 12 of this act, and the text book or series of text books so selected, shall be the authorized text book as provided in this act."

In pursuance of section 11, above quoted, the superintendent of public instruction did on the first day of November, 1880, issue to the county school superintendents of the several counties of this state the regular circular therein mentioned, containing wholesale price lists as required in section 10, and a request for the vote of each superintendent on text books for use in the common schools of this state for the period of four years, commencing October 1, 1881. By the first day of January, 1881, all the circulars, fully answered as required by law, were returned to this office. On the fourth day of January, 1881, the canvass of the votes was made by the state board of education, and showed that the following text books received a majority of the votes of all the county superintendents, and were therefore declared to be the authorized text books in the respective branches for the period of four years from the first day of October, 1881 to wit: Watson's, Child's, Youths' and Complete Spellers received the votes from all the counties except Umatilla, which was cast for Webster's Elementary.

The Independent series of readers received the votes from all the counties.

W. L. White's system of penmanship and copy books received the votes of Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Curry, Douglas, Lake, Lane, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Wasco, Washington and Yamhill counties, and the votes of the remaining counties were cast for the Spencerian system of penmanship and copy books.

Brooks' arithmetics, primary, elementary and written, received the votes of Baker, Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Lake, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Wasco, Washington and Yamhill. The primary and written received in addition the votes of Curry and Tillamook.

Monteith's Elementary and Monteith's Comprehensive geographies received the votes of Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Douglas, Grant, Lake, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Umatilla, Union, Wasco, Washington and Yamhill, and in addition the vote of Baker was cast for the Comprehensive, and the vote of Lane for the Elementary.

Sill's Practical Lessons in English received the votes of Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Douglas, Lake, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Tillamook, Washington and Yamhill.

Clark's Normal Grammar received the votes of Baker, Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Douglas, Grant, Jackson, Josephine, Lake, Lane, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Tillamook, Washington and Yamhill.

Barnes' Brief History of the United States received the votes of all the counties except Baker, Columbia, Curry and Tillamook.

Farley's Universal History received the votes of all the counties except Baker and Jackson.

Monteith's Popular Science received the votes of Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Douglas, Grant, Lake, Lane, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Wasco, Washington and Yamhill.

Westlake's Common School Literature received the votes of Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Douglas, Lake, Lane, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Washington and Yamhill.

Young's Government Class Book received the votes of all the counties except Baker, Coos, Grant, Jackson and Tillamook.

FOR ADVANCED GRADES.

Brooks' Normal, Mental and Higher Arithmetics received the votes of Baker, Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Lake, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Wasco, Washington and Yamhill, and the Normal Mental received in addition the votes of Curry, Douglas, Lane and Union.

Brooks' Normal Elementary Algebra and Brooks' Normal Geometry and Trigonometry received the votes of all the counties except Jackson.

Anderson's General History received the unanimous vote of all the counties.

Swinton's Composition received the votes of Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Curry, Douglas, Lake, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Washington, Wasco and Yamhill.

Steele's Physiology received the votes of all counties except Coos, Curry, Grant, Tillamook, Union and Wasco.

Steele's Philosophy and Steele's Chemistry each received the votes of all the counties except Curry.

Steele's Botany received the votes of Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Douglas, Grant, Lake, Lane, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Wasco, Washington and Yamhill.

Lyte's book-keeping received the votes of Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Douglas, Josephine, Lake, Lane, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Umatilla, Washington and Yamhill.

In this adoption changes have been made in the following text books:

In the primary and common grades, Brooks' arithmetic has been selected instead of Thompson's. W. L. White's system of penmanship and copy books in lieu of Spencerian. Monteith's elementary and Monteith's comprehensive geographies, two books, both Pacific coast editions, in lieu of the old four book series by the same author. Sill's practical lessons in English, instead of Clark's beginners' grammar. Young's government class-book instead of Hopkins' Manual of American Ideas.

For the advanced grades, Brooks' higher arithmetic has been chosen instead of Robinson's. Swinton's composition, instead of Hart's, Steele's botany instead of Wood's Botanist and florist, and Lyte's book-keeping instead of Bryant and Stratton's.

The law requires that these books recently adopted should be introduced into the schools by the first day of October, 1881, and in order to make the change an absolutely inexpensive one, these new books will be supplied to the people till that time, by book dealers throughout the state, at the remarkably low prices herewith submitted, to wit:

| | Introduction. | Exchange. |
|---|---|---|
| Primary Arithmetic | 15 cts | 12cts. |
| Elementary Arithmetic | 30 | 25 |
| Normal Written Arithmetic | 60 | 45 |
| Elementary Geography | 45 | 30 |
| Comprehensive Geography | 90 | 60 |
| Sill's Practical Lessons in Eng. | 48 | 36 |
| Young's Gov't Class Book | 85 | 60 |
| Brooks' Higher Arithmetic | 85 | 63 |
| Swinton's Composition | 27 | 22 |
| Lyte's Book-keeping | 60 | |

The introduction price is simply the retail price during the period for introduction. The exchange price is the difference of price between the new book and the old one of corresponding grade in use heretofore.

If at any place in the state a higher price than those above given should be demanded by any dealer during the time for introduction, the county superintendent should be notified of the fact immediately, whose duty it would be to investigate the matter forthwith and have the error corrected. It is the expressed wish of the publishers of these various books that the people throughout the entire state should have the benefit of these extremely low prices during the period of introduction.

L. J. POWELL,
Supt. Public Instruction.

EUCALYPTUS.

Eucalyptus has of late years been found very useful for a great number of the ills that flesh is heir to. Its latest application is in the shape of Slaven's California Pine and Eucalyptus Porous Plaster, an article which is possessed of much merit, and is fast superseding the old pitch and frankincense plaster. It is endorsed by the medical profession throughout the land. For sale by Woodard, Clarke & Co., Portland, Oregon.

Mrs. Hughes, the mother of Thomas Hughes, though more than 83 years old, means to cross the ocean and spend the remainder of her days in her son's colony of Rugby in Tennessee. She will bring over her furniture, pictures and books, and expects to arrive in this country in May. Before going south she will make a stay at the house of Mr. Geo. W. Childs, at Philadelphia, and a special car will convey her thence by easy stages to her destination.

FRIDAY EVENING, April 29, 1881.

We are asked to call attention to the law which allows to all inland drafts, drawn "at sight," or so many days "after sight," three days grace. The only way in which inland drafts, under our law, can be collected on presentation is to draw them payable "on demand." Observance of this rule will save trouble to parties accustomed to drawing drafts at sight or one or more days after sight.

WHEAT AND FREIGHTS.

Report for San Francisco—The Situation Reviewed.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—The point has been reached in the cereal year when business is expected to be light and a quiet state of the freight market is therefore no disappointment. The next thirty days will be a period during which damage to crops, if any, will occur. If that is passed, happily without injury to wheat another large crop will soon after be harvested and transportation facilities strained to the utmost to market it. If the crop be seriously injured during the time named the enormous carry-over stock will undoubtedly rise in value and freights weaken. Under these circumstances there is naturally no haste to hurry forward wheat to market and shippers show considerable caution in making freight engagements. These facts explain the present quiescent state of the market, which in the face of the insignificant amount of tonnage free or engaged here or due here within the next thirty days as compared with amount of wheat available for export, would otherwise appear extraordinary. There have been no spot transactions during the week and but one disengaged vessel has been in port during that time. Rates are therefore nominal. Several vessels have come to hand under engagement, but not sufficient tonnage has arrived to make good the loss by clearances, and figures stand at 85,5[illegible] tons at this writing, against 89,562 tons at the date of the last review. The corner in sailors has been broken by the securing of a Chinese crew for the British ship Rock Terrace, and a number of ships have been manned and gone to sea after annoying detention from scarcity of seamen. Tonnage on the way continues to increase, and is more than double the amount bound here at this time last year or in 1879, but its carrying capacity is still not more than sufficient to take away the surplus of old wheat still on hand.

The Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, April 29. Wool during the past week has been more quiet. Manufacturers have taken 1,800,000 lbs., mostly domestic, including all grades and qualities. There is no improvement in prices and no prospect of any improvement at present. Manufacturers purchase cautiously as the entire clip of the country comes upon the market during the next two months and they feel that with such abundant supplies of old and new wool on hand, prices should rule low. Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces have been selling at 35@40c for XXX, 40@41½c for XX, 42c for X and above. Buyers are not disposed to pay over 40c for good XX fleeces. Michigan, Wisconsin and New York fleeces have been sold at 37@40c, and dull. Medium and No. 1 fleeces range from 40 to 46 as to quality. Some choice lots of Ohio are selling at 46@48c. Combing and delaine fleeces have been very quiet and remain unchanged. In California wool there have been sales of 370,000 lbs. principally fall, at 16@25c ₩ lb, and in unwashed and medium fleeces sales have been 425,000 lbs at various prices as to quality, including fine unwashed at 24@28c; good medium grades, 18@23c; pulled wool has been in fair demand at 30@48c for common and good western supers, and 40@45c for good and choice, eastern supers 35@45c for X pulled. Foreign wool has been quiet; sales 100,000 lbs. Cape at 33@34c; several lots of Montevideo, 28@41c, and small lots Mediterranean carpet at various prices.

Freights for the Pacific.

NEW YORK, April 29. Freights via Cape Horn do not show any improvement, and although brokers are not active yet there is a fair trade doing for the season, which is now too far advanced to expect any general movement of freight. Vessels on berth are doing fairly. The Raphael will finish in about 10 days, and the Eureka about the same time. Rates for the same classes of freight are a little irregular and easier although there is no general decline. Tonnage is plenty and owners are desirous of accepting this business. The ship Brown Brothers will load at Boston in Van Black's line from that port. The Indiana has been withdrawn from the California line and will load a cargo of railroad iron for Portland, Oregon.

Railroad freights have been less active but by no means dull. Shipments for the past week include 250 kegs and 125 bbls syrup, 500 kegs herring, 75 cases champagne, 720 cases canned goods, 500 boxes lemons, 155 cases cocoanut, 510 boxes soap, 526 bbls oysters, 200 boxes pepper, 200 pkgs [illegible], 250 bbls currants, 500 boxes raisins, 1550 pkgs tobacco.

A Grain Circular's Report.

LIVERPOOL, April 29.—A leading grain circular says the grain trade has been quieter. Prices, however, are generally unchanged. Business is apparently still greatly restricted by the difficulty millers experience in selling flour in the face of foreign competition. Cargoes of flour sell slowly at a shade easier. Prices of cargoes for shipment are also lower. There has been a fair inquiry on spot and in the neighborhood for wheat, slightly under Tuesday's prices. Corn dull, one half penny lower. Attendance at today's market was thin. Wheat only met restricted consumptive demand at a decline of 1d@2d. Flour of all kinds are [illegible] Winter weaker. American mixed corn is in liberal supply and comparatively little request. Prices receded one half pence; round corn scarce and advanced.

Liverpool Wheat Market.

LIVERPOOL, April 29.—Breadstuffs, small business, lower prices; wheat, 9s 6d per cental for average California white; 9s 6d@9s 10 for California club, and 8s 6d@9s for red western spring. Receipts of wheat for the last three days, 1,095,000 centals, including 161,000 American.

Mr. Beecher and Rev. Dr. Storrs Having Something to say Regarding the Bible Revision.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher says with reference to a reported expurgation in the revised edition of the New Testament: "There are undoubtedly a good many things in the New Testament that might be changed or a word might be dropped without altering the sense. DR. PAUL M. BRENAN,

The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast in the Treatment of

ALL CHRONIC & DIFFICULT DISEASES.

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of Disease of the generative organs or private disease. He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the FOLLIES OF YOUTH.

Such as SPERMATORRHEA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring either directly or indirectly from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician to cure, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organizations broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Lost manhood perfectly restored. Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Diseases, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint, and all Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Bladder, he can cure without fail.

Consultation Free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.

Office—No. 63 First street, between Oak and Pine.
Office Hours—From 10 to 12 A.M., 2 to 5 and 7 to 8 P. M.

All letters of professional business must be addressed to DR. PAUL M. BRENAN & CO., Portland, Oregon.
